

Super Heroes
Words and Music by Krista Westenhofer

Some days I feel like I just don't matter
And there are days when life is hard
Then there's days when I feel faith get stronger.
It seems like nothing could go wrong.

Who am I to you, who am I to anybody?
Don't you think the world could use someone like me?

Chorus:
What if we were superheroes, what if we could fly?
Sailing on the wings of eagles, born to live this life.
What if we could save the world?
I think it's worth a try.
Together we'll save the world, you and I.

So when I feel like I just don't matter
And it feels like life is hard
I think of days when I felt faith get stronger
And then I know I can go on.

Who am I to Him? I am not like anybody.
Don't you think the world could use someone like me?

We can all be superheroes, if we only try
Sailing on the wings of eagles, born to live this life
What if we could save the world?
I think it's worth a try
Together we'll save the world, you and I.

We can all be superheroes, if we only try
Sailing on the wings of eagles, born to live this life
What if we could save the world?
I think it's worth a try
Together we'll save the world, you and I.
